

Matthew, May, Maude, Mags, Millie and Martha audition piece
Part 1

MOTHER KELLY: I want you to meet your new father.

MATTHEW: Not again!

MAY: But I don't want another one.

JOE: You got married again?

MOTHER KELLY: Not yet, but I am engaged.

MAUDE: Why's he staring like that? He looks like a half-wit

MILLIE: Half a half wit

MOTHER KELLY: Don't be unkind.

MARTHA: And he smells funny.

MAY: I don't like him.

MAGS: Is he rich?

MICHAEL: It'll be the only thing going for him if he is.

MOTHER KELLY: I'm not looking for your opinions. Me and Henry are very happy together; that's all you need to know.

MARION: Another Henry?

MARTHA: Not again!

MOTHER KELLY: Quiet now, else you'll all get a clip round the ear.

MATTHEW: Couldn't you at least have found a better Henry?

MICHAEL: Nah, 'cause she's running out of them, isn't she? There's probably not another Henry left in the whole of London.

Part 2

DAISY: Have any of you seen Marion? She was supposed to show me how to plait my hair for the wedding.

MARTHA: I haven't seen her for days.

MICHAEL: Mum says she's gone on holiday.

MAUDE: I bet she's gone to the beach.

MAGS: She's probably on it right now.

MAY: I wish I was on holiday.

MICHAEL: We are. Can't you tell? We're standing on the golden sands. And over there is the glittering sea.

MILLIE: I can hear seagulls.

MATTHEW: And the waves crashing against the breakers.

MAGS: I've made a sandcastle.

MARTHA: What a beautiful day!

TOBY: I want an ice cream.

MICHAEL: Alright, Toby, let's not go mad.

MARTHA: Oh no!

MAGS: What?

MARTHA: I've got sunburn.

MATTHEW: Seaweed attack!
